

Track Chair: Prof Shirley Yeung, Gratia Christian College UNPRME Advanced Signatory Institute since 2017

Title of the proposed track: Forward Thinking for Sustainable Education

Track Description: The objectives of the Green Entrepreneurial Education Track with Art Tech + Environmental Products of 2025 are:

- To explore new possibilities of entrepreneurship in creative art tech, which will contribute to the attainment of SDG 1/2/3/4/5/9/13/16/17;
- To develop sustainable design concepts and technologies through innovation and SDG 3: striving to produce the artistic, pure, with values products in the market; and
- An exhibition with workshop will be led by art tech business entrepreneurs and educators.

Expected Outcomes

- Understanding by youth and Golden Generations, Academic and SMEs of the creative art tech education with drawings, curriculum, poster, research abstract in design poster to be converted to digital assets with blockchain
- Understanding of digital transformations applications by participants via a chance of converting onsite drawings and authentic visual items into digital assets
- Development of ideas of green / blue entrepreneurship products, services, processes for disruptions in education"
- Innovations in Education with Environmental Products, Services, Processes with Digital Assets, Art Tech Business

Subtracks

- Innovations in Education with Environmental Products, Services, Processes with Digital Assets, Art Tech Business